

Terms of Agreement

1. The minimum number of total participants for both K to K and D to K races combined is 150 people. If the number of applicants does not reach 150, the event will be canceled. This decision will be made on May 1st. If the decision to cancel due to a low number of participants has been made, the Organizer will inform applicants of the cancelation immediately, and refund travel expenses. In this case, the entrance fee will be refunded after deducting preparation costs.
2. After sending the entry form, changes in the participating course or the runner's name, and transfers of rights cannot be made at the applicant's convenience.
3. In the case of earthquakes, storms, flooding, snow, epidemics, other incidents and accidents, etc., the Organizer will consider the circumstances and decide to cancel or reduce the size of the event. The Organizer can also make other decisions on a case-by-case basis, including whether refunds of the travel fee and entrance fee will be made and if so how much, how to notify applicants of decisions, etc.
4. I have no heart disease or any other illnesses, will take good care of my health, and train properly to run the race. I assume responsibility for any illnesses, injuries, accidents, losses, and other incidents that may happen to myself.
5. During the race, if the Organizer decides that the race should be stopped, or that I should stop the race, I will abide by the Organizer's instructions immediately. I will also observe other instructions given by the Organizer for safety or management reasons.
6. I have no objection to receiving first aid treatment should I get ill or injured during the race. I will not hold the Organizer responsible for the methods of the treatment, progress after the treatment, etc.
7. I will waive the Organizer's responsibilities for accidents, losses, illnesses, injuries, etc. that may arise during the race, and will not file lawsuits against the Organizer, such as those claiming damages.
8. I acknowledge that the compensation for accidents, illnesses, or injuries that may arise during the race will be given within the range specified by the marathon insurance (※1) and the Special Compensation of Travel Agency Provisions (※2). (The compensation does not include reparations and other obligations. These insurances are primarily for residents of Japan. Therefore, applicants living overseas cannot be covered. We recommend that applicants who wish for more coverage, or overseas residents, subscribe to additional insurance on their own.)
9. My family/relatives have consented to my participation in this race.

- 1 0. I will not make false statements regarding my age, gender, and other facts. I, the applicant myself, will run the race, and will not let others run in my name (substitute runner). If any such actions are revealed, I will abide by the Organizer's decisions, including revocation of entry or award, and disqualification from future entry. The Organizer will not assume any responsibilities for matters such as rescuing and refunding those who provided false statements or used substitute runners.
- 1 1. I agree that video footage, photos, articles, records of the event (and personal information included therein, such as name, age, gender, records, images, etc.) may be publicized, displayed, or used in newspapers, TV programs, magazines, the internet, brochures, etc. I also agree that the Organizer owns the right to publicize or use them.
- 1 2. The Organizer handles personal information of applicants in accordance with the policies stated below. (※3)
- 1 3. Once paid, the Organizer will not refund the ¥6,000 deposit, which is part of the entrance fee, under any circumstances. As for the travel fee, the following cancellation fees will be charged depending on when the cancellation is made.

	20 days – 8 days before	7 days – 2 days before	Day before the event	Day of the event	Cancellation after the event has started, or without notice
Cancellation fee	20 %	30 %	40 %	50 %	100 %

※1 The maximum amount of insurance compensation for both accidental deaths and residual disabilities is ¥5,000,000 (diseases/illnesses ¥1,000,000). Medical compensation includes ¥3,000 for hospitalization per day (up to 180 days) and ¥1,500 for outpatient treatment per day (up to 90 days). In addition to ordinary injuries, the insurance covers the following five specific types of diseases and illnesses: 1. Acute heart diseases, such as acute ischemic heart diseases (myocardial infarction) and acute heart failure, 2. Acute brain disorders, such as subarachnoid hemorrhages and brain hemorrhages, 3. Heat-related illnesses, such as sun stroke and heat stroke, 4. Hypothermia, 5. Dehydration.

※The insurance does not cover cases where the insured person has received medical treatment or taken prescribed medication for diseases medically related to the above-listed diseases 1. or 2. within 12 months prior to the event.

※2 For a certain extent of harm incurred on a participant's life, body, or baggage during the program caused by sudden, unexpected, and external events, partial compensation will be paid in accordance with the Special Compensation Rules of Travel Agency Provisions set out by the coordinating organization, Nanto Kankosha. The amount of compensation is ¥15 million for death, ¥450,000 - ¥15 million for residual disabilities, ¥20,000 - ¥200,000 for hospitalization depending on the number of days spent at the hospital, ¥10,000 - ¥50,000 for outpatient treatment depending on the number of days spent seeing the doctor, and a certain amount for damaged baggage (maximum of ¥100,000 for single items or for a pair of items, with a maximum total of ¥150,000).

※3 Collected personal information will be used for communication with the applicants. Names and other information about the applicants will be given electronically or by other means to the companies providing services in transportation, lodging, insurance, etc. This will be done within the guidelines and limitations necessary for arranging transportation and accommodation services, and also within the guidelines and limitations necessary for the coordinating organization, Nanto Kankosha, to secure responsibilities of insurance procedures as stated in the contract, cost in case of an accident, etc. (Names of the main transportation companies, accommodation facilities, etc. will be given in the confirmation document which will be sent to the applicants by the date stated in the schedule and the contract.)
